Northeast Business Group on Health Honors Three Hospitals for Patient Safety and Quality Improvements

Bronx Lebanon Hospital Center, Harlem Hospital Center and Stamford Hospital Each Receive NEBGH's Leapfrog Hospital Award

NEW YORK, November 12, 2015 – Northeast Business Group on Health (NEBGH) today honored three hospitals – Bronx Lebanon Hospital Center, Harlem Hospital Center and Stamford Hospital – with Leapfrog Hospital awards to recognize their dedication and commitment to improving patient safety and quality.

“NEBGH is pleased to recognize these three hospitals for the advances they have made in improving the safety and quality of patient care,” said Laurel Pickering, President and CEO of NEBGH. “We celebrate their achievements, continued commitment to reporting, and high level of transparency. We also want to recognize all the hospitals that participated in the Leapfrog survey and encourage them to keep striving to improve because their work matters.”

The awards were presented today at NEBGH's second annual Leapfrog Hospital Awards Breakfast: Bronx Lebanon Hospital Center and Harlem Hospital Center each received the Excellence in Patient Safety and Quality Award; Stamford Hospital in Stamford, Connecticut received the Greatest Leaps in Patient Safety and Quality Award.

The awards were based on a combination of factors including the hospitals' Leapfrog survey results and Safety Score. This information is publicly reported at www.leapfroggroup.org.

“I commend these hospitals for their deep commitment to transparency, and for ensuring high-quality, safe care for their patients,” said Leah Binder, president and CEO of The Leapfrog Group. “We are proud to stand with the Northeast Business Group on Health as a key advocate for transparency in the New York metro area and Connecticut, and urge all hospitals to match these top performers in their pursuit of radical quality improvement and value-driven care.”
