NORTHEAST BUSINESS GROUP ON HEALTH

HP2030 HEALTHY PEOPLE 2030 CHAMPION

MONDAYS WITH DR MARK & DR MICHAEL

Monday, November 3, 2025 | 1:00 – 2:00PM

TOPIC #55

The Future is Aging: Building Age-Friendly Workforces for Tomorrow's Talent

Featured Speaker:

Michael Hodin, PhD
CEO
Global Coalition on Aging

Global Coalition on Aging

Making the Business Case for Employee Financial Wellness and Retirement Security

June 17, 2025

Michael W. Hodin
CEO, Global Coalition on Aging

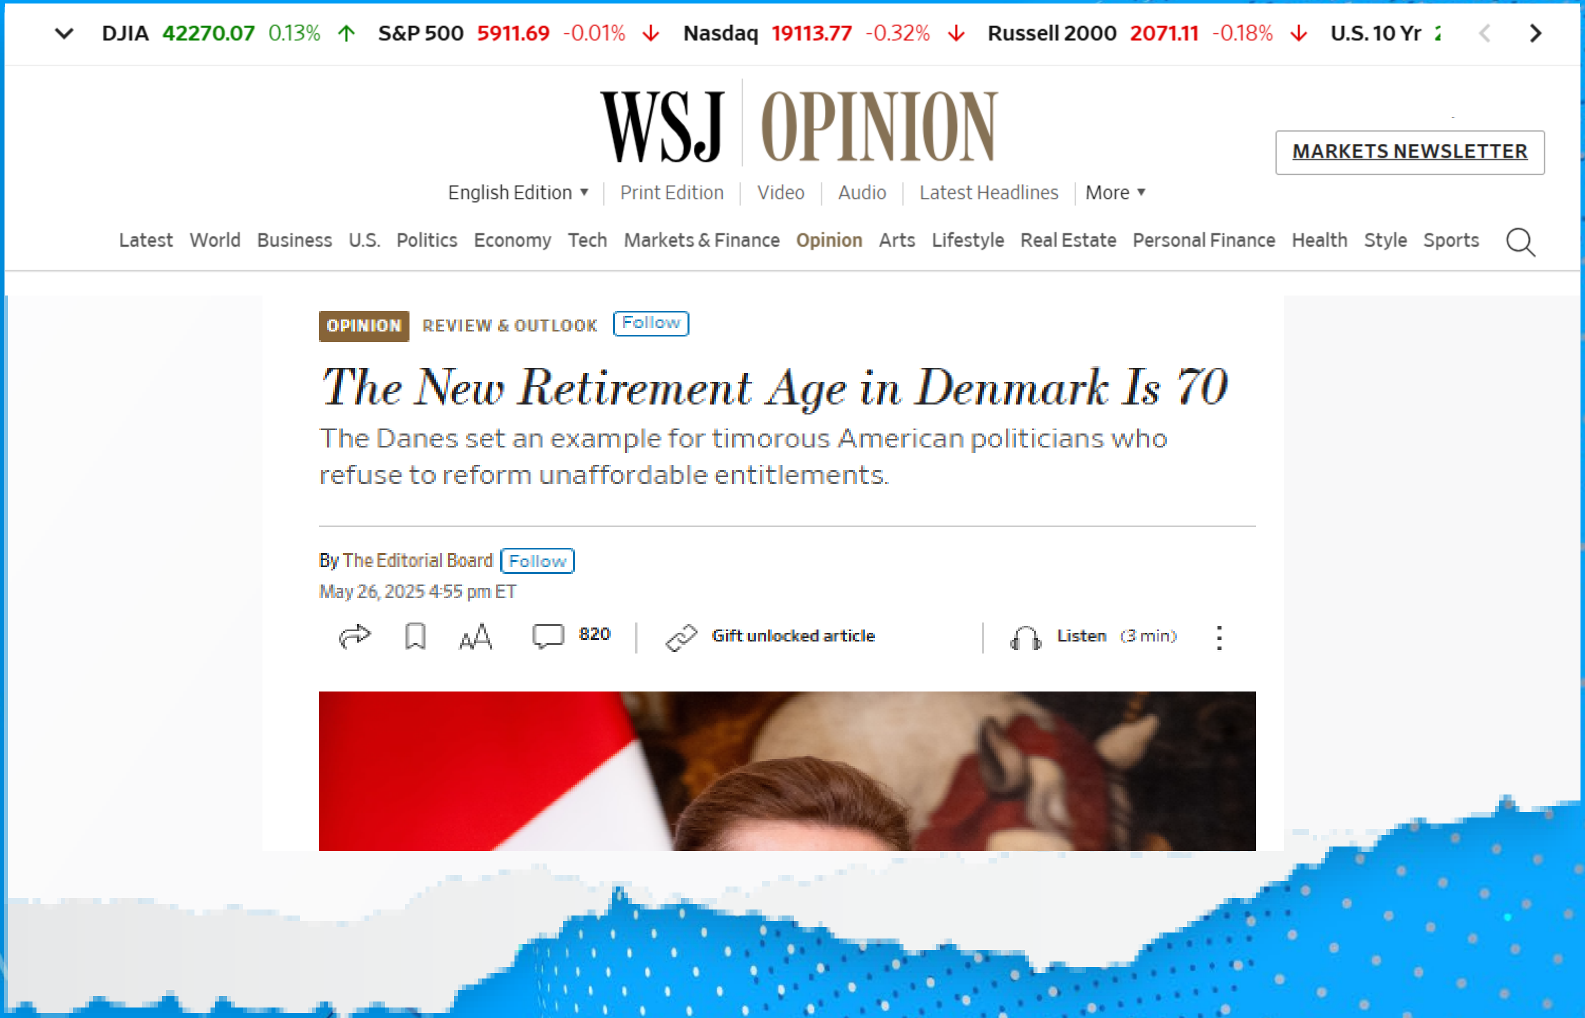
We have reached a milestone, which for the history of humanity has been unimaginable.

The once extravagant prospect of growing old has become the norm.

The next milestone:

Achieve healthy longevity through systems changes.

The New Shape of Work and Retirement



DJIA 42270.07 0.13% S&P 500 5911.69 -0.01% Nasdaq 19113.77 -0.32% Russell 2000 2071.11 -0.18% U.S. 10 Yr

WSJ OPINION

MARKETS NEWSLETTER

English Edition | Print Edition | Video | Audio | Latest Headlines | More

Latest World Business U.S. Politics Economy Tech Markets & Finance Opinion Arts Lifestyle Real Estate Personal Finance Health Style Sports

OPINION REVIEW & OUTLOOK Follow

The New Retirement Age in Denmark Is 70

The Danes set an example for timorous American politicians who refuse to reform unaffordable entitlements.

By The Editorial Board Follow

May 26, 2025 4:55 pm ET

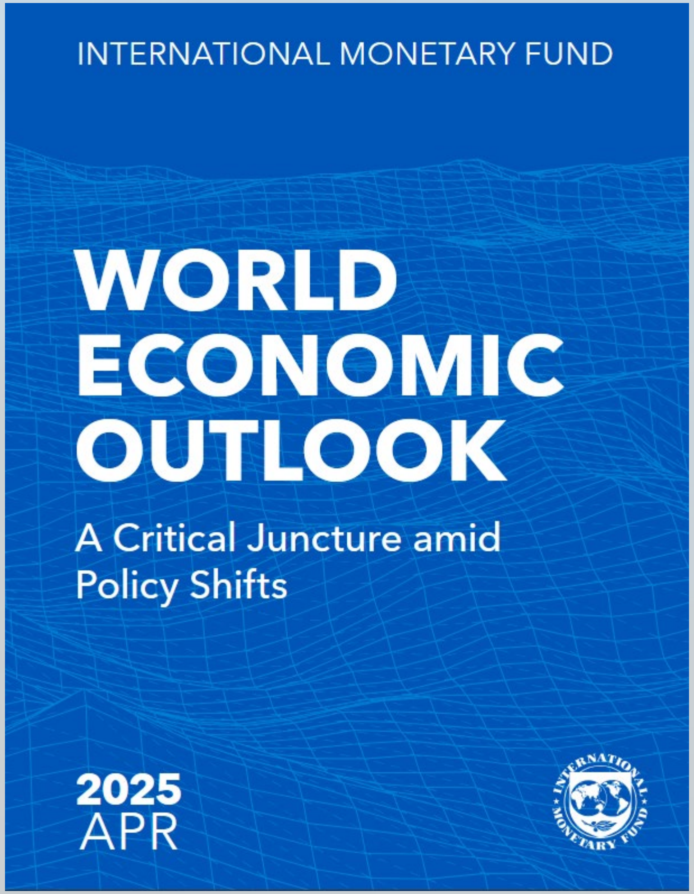
820 Gift unlocked article Listen (3 min)

GLOBAL POPULATION 55+:

CURRENTLY AT

2 Billion

AND DOUBLING BY MID-CENTURY



"By leveraging strategies related to these policies, countries can harness the potential of the silver economy to boost growth and rebuild fiscal buffers amid demographic headwinds."

—"Chapter 2: The Silver Economy," World Economic Outlook, International Monetary Fund

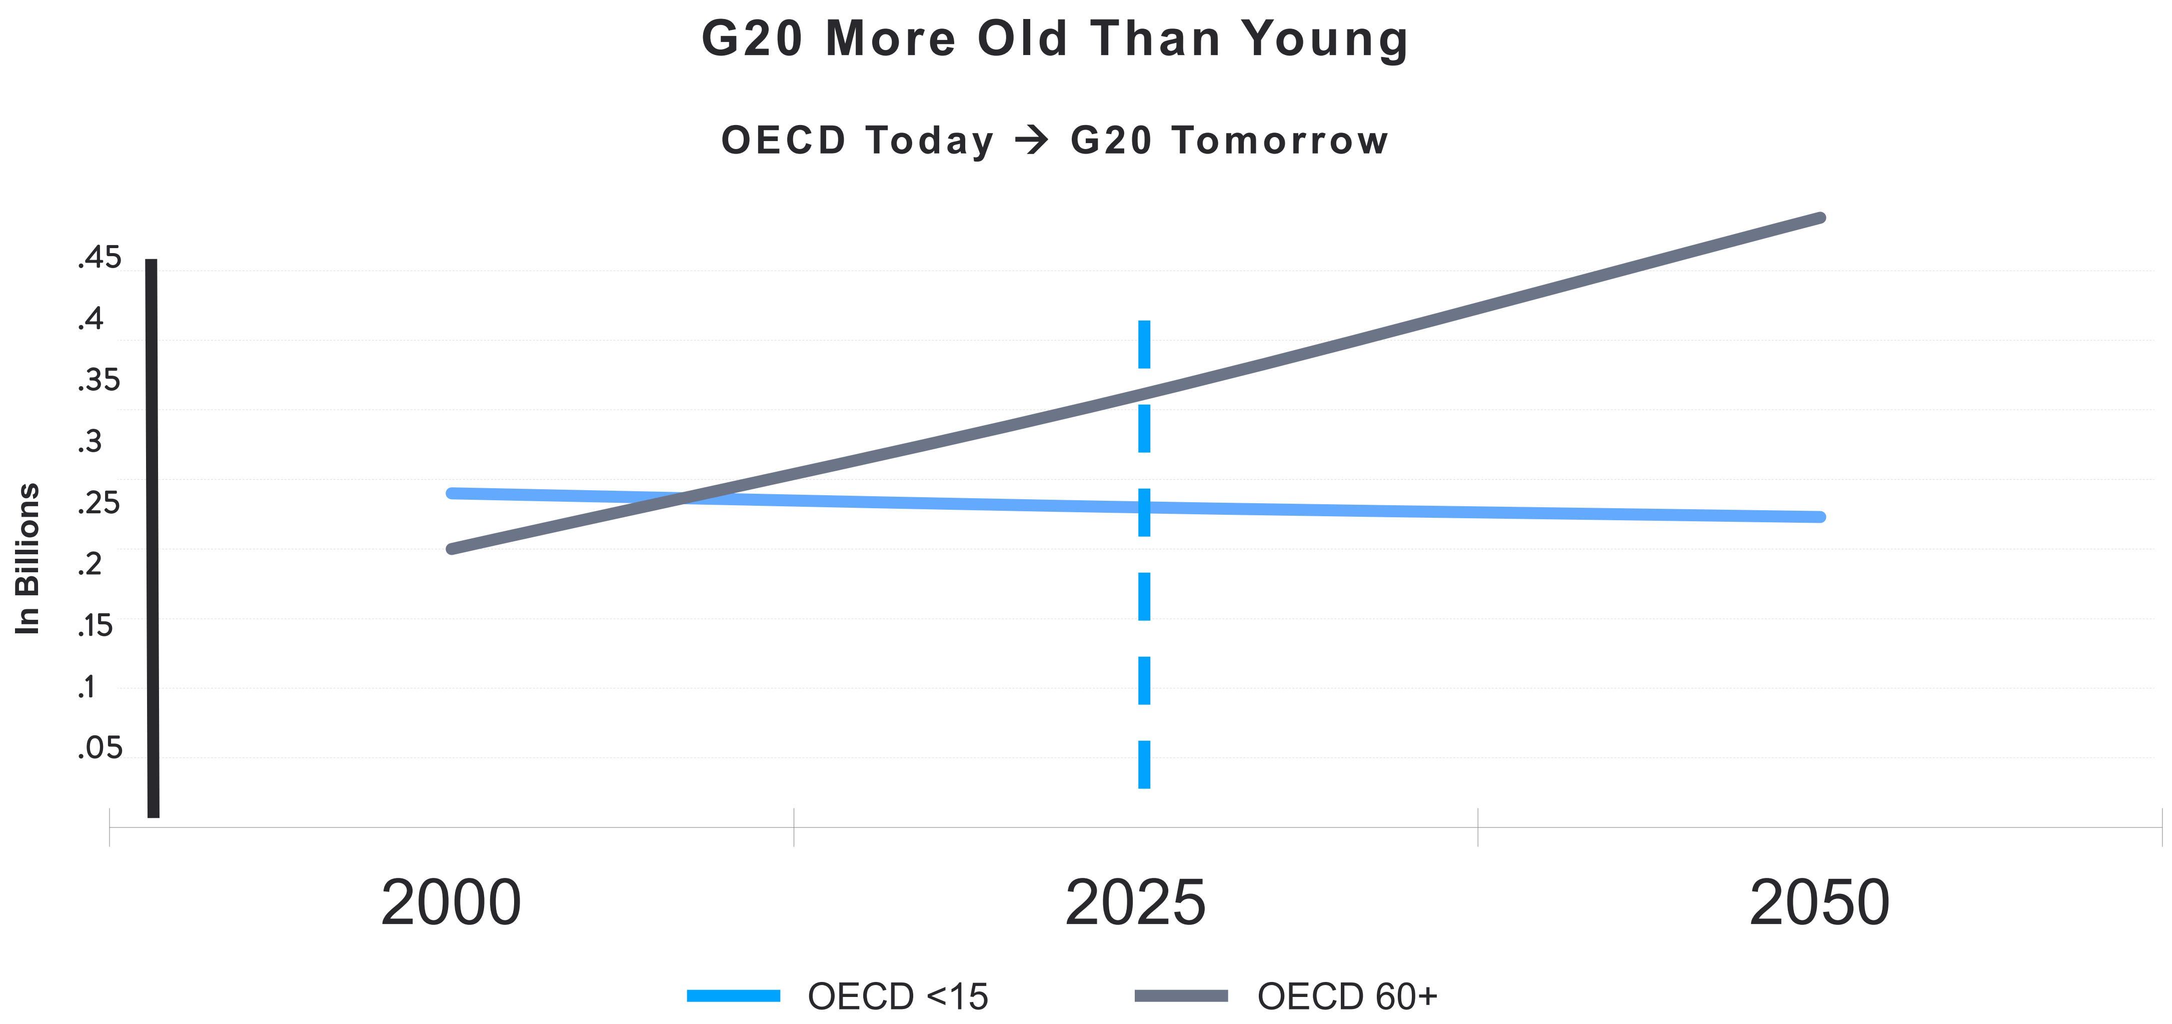
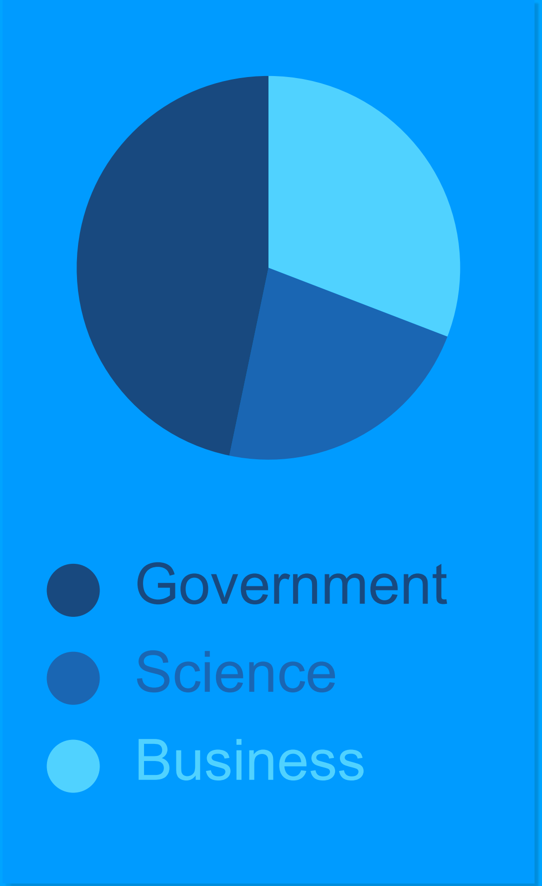
Already More Old Than Young



The Silver Economy Forum



MANCHESTER

2025

Aging: A Megatrend with Institutional Attention

Decade of healthy ageing

WHO Global Network for Age-friendly Cities and Communities

PRIMETIME PARTNERS

THE WORLD BANK

McKinsey Health Institute

OECD

The Vatican

BBC StoryWorks Commercial Productions

Government Recognition

NIH National Institute on Aging

HHS delivers strategic framework for National Plan on Aging

ANNOUNCEMENTS

June 14, 2024

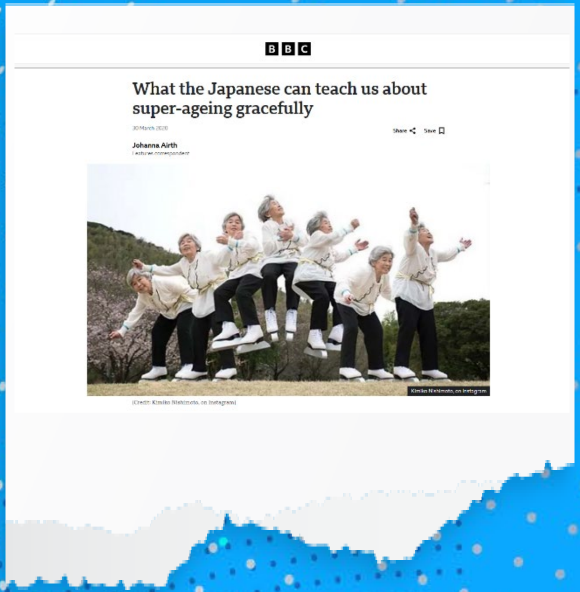
Originally posted in HHS News

Today the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, through its Administration for Community Living, released "Aging in the United States: A Strategic Framework for a National Plan on Aging- PDF" (PDF, 1.29 MB). The report lays the groundwork for a coordinated effort – across the private and public sectors and in partnership with older adults, family caregivers, the aging services network, and other stakeholders – to create a national set of recommendations for advancing healthy aging and age-friendly communities that value and truly include older adults. The national plan on aging will advance best practices for service delivery, support development and strengthening of partnerships within and across sectors, identify solutions for removing barriers to health and independence for older adults, and more. Developed by leaders and experts from 16 federal agencies and departments working together through the Interagency

EUPHA HEALTHY AGEING

The EUPHA Healthy ageing section initiative is dedicated to addressing the public health challenges of the ageing population of Europe and beyond. Its key objectives are to promote healthy ageing trajectories, reduce health inequalities in the aging populations, promote late-life flourishing, and improve the overall well-being of older adults through evidence-based strategies, preventive measures, and collaborative efforts aligned with the UN Decade of Healthy Ageing.

By joining this Section, you can exchange knowledge with researchers, policymakers and practitioners in the field of healthy ageing. You don't need to be a EUPHA Member to join a Section.



BBC

What the Japanese can teach us about super-ageing gracefully

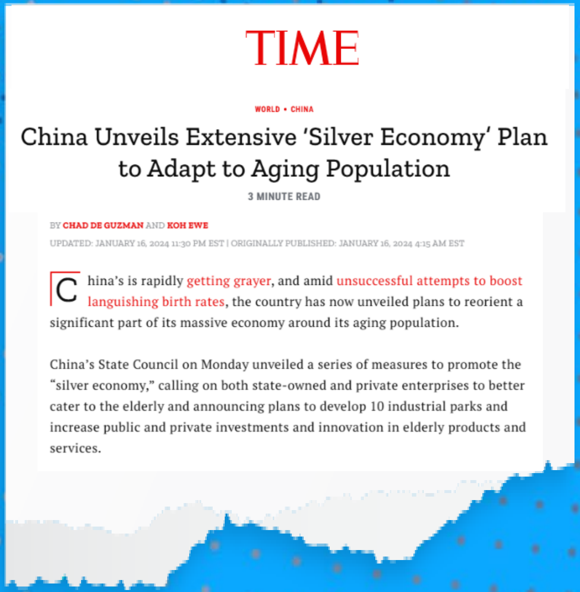
30 March 2020

Share Save

Johanna Airth
Features correspondent

Kimiko Nishimoto, on Instagram

(Credit: Kimiko Nishimoto, on Instagram)



TIME

WORLD • CHINA

China Unveils Extensive 'Silver Economy' Plan to Adapt to Aging Population

3 MINUTE READ

BY CHAD DE GUZMAN AND KOH EWE

UPDATED: JANUARY 16, 2024 11:30 PM EST | ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED: JANUARY 16, 2024 4:15 AM EST

China's is rapidly getting grayer, and amid unsuccessful attempts to boost languishing birth rates, the country has now unveiled plans to reorient a significant part of its massive economy around its aging population.

China's State Council on Monday unveiled a series of measures to promote the "silver economy," calling on both state-owned and private enterprises to better cater to the elderly and announcing plans to develop 10 industrial parks and increase public and private investments and innovation in elderly products and services.

Leaders Within The Silver Economy

BANK OF AMERICA

WORKFORCE AND RETIREMENT

gsk

PREVENTATIVE HEALTH AND SCREENING

honor

HOME CARE

PHILIPS

TECHNOLOGY

SHIONOGI

ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE

Key Takeaways

The older world which trends have predicted is already here—with 2 billion people over the age of 55, doubling by mid-century.

Key Takeaways

- The older world which trends have predicted is already here—with 2 billion people over the age of 55, doubling by mid-century.

- Aging is an opportunity, but only with imagination, strategic investment and embracing the profound historic transformation underway.

Key Takeaways

- The older world which trends have predicted is already here—with 2 billion people over the age of 55, doubling by mid-century.
- Aging is an opportunity, but only with imagination, strategic investment and embracing the profound historic transformation underway.

.

- We need to change the work-life paradigm, create and embrace reforms aligned to the new reality.

Key Takeaways

- The older world which trends have predicted is already here—with 2 billion people over the age of 55, doubling by mid-century.
- Aging is an opportunity, but only with imagination, strategic investment and embracing the profound historic transformation underway.
- We need to change the work-life paradigm, create and embrace reforms aligned to the new reality.

.

We'll need to work longer and rethink how we plan for lives to 100—including retirement planning.

Key Takeaways

- The older world which trends have predicted is already here—with 2 billion people over the age of 55, doubling by mid-century.
- Aging is an opportunity, but only with imagination, strategic investment and embracing the profound historic transformation underway.
- We need to change the work-life paradigm, create and embrace reforms aligned to the new reality.
- We'll need to work longer and rethink how we plan for lives to 100—including retirement planning.

Successful businesses will capitalize on the exploding Silver Economy market from changes in recruitment, retention, and retirement, to products and service offerings.

NORTHEAST
BUSINESS GROUP ON HEALTH

Upcoming NEBGH events:

- November 6 - Transformations in Cancer Care: Innovative Approaches for Better Experiences and Outcomes
- November 13 – The Cancer Care Continuum: Supporting Employees Throughout the Cancer Journey
- November 17 – Mondays with Dr. Mark & Dr. Michael
- November 20 – The Silent Crisis: Rethinking Men's Health at Work
- December 10 – Annual Membership Meeting

SAVE THE DATE FOR THESE 2026 EVENTS!

- February 12 – 31st Annual Tribute to Leadership
- June 18 – 15th Annual Health & Wellness Benefits Conference

Remember to rate this webinar!